

Burkhard Kübel-Sorger, Deputy Chairman
Chief Financial Officer, J.P. Morgan AG

Burkhard Kübel-Sorger, Managing Director, is the CFO/COO for J.P. Morgan AG (JPMAG) and member of the JPMAG Management Board, leading the Brexit Implementation Project.

In the past years, he has held various leadership roles, such as Sub-Regional Controller for Developing Countries in EMEA, Project Manager for LE Simplification in the UK as well as Head of EMEA ex UK Branch Operations.

In addition, he is an active member of the Frankfurt Philanthropy Committee and BRG sponsor of Working Families and NextGen in Frankfurt.

Prior to joining J.P. Morgan in 2005, Burkhard spent more than 10 years at ABB, a Swedish-Swiss engineering companies with a strong financial services section, in Frankfurt, Singapore and Zurich, ultimately at Corporate Treasurer and Head of the World Treasury Centre.

Burkhard studied in Paris, Oxford and Berlin and got a degree in European Masters in International Management. He is married and has two daughters and two dogs.

Since June 2013 he is a member of the board of the Association of Foreign Banks in Germany, since May 2019 deputy chairman.